

EMERGENCY ALERT: Hurricane Response in Haiti

Hurricane Matthew made landfall in Haiti on October 4 as powerful category 4 storm. Lutheran World Relief is responding to the immediate needs of more than 16,600 people in Haiti with clean water, food, temporary shelter kits, and LWR Quilts and Kits. We're also providing seeds and fishing equipment to help families recover lost livelihoods faster.

YOU CAN HELP

- GIVE to LWR's Hurricane Matthew – Haiti Fund online at lwr.org/matthew, by calling 800.597.5972, or mailing a check to Lutheran World Relief, PO Box 17061, Baltimore, MD 21297-1061 (please note "Hurricane Matthew – Haiti Fund").
- MAKE QUILTS AND KITS. LWR is delivering Mission Quilts, Personal Care Kits, School Kits and Baby Care Kits to Haiti. Put your faith into action and assemble more to ensure we are able to adequately respond to other emergencies.
- PRAY for those affected by Hurricane Matthew, and all who work to help them.

Lord who moves through the waters, thank you for surrounding the people of Haiti through the storm with glad cries of deliverance. Bless the feet of those who arrive with immediate assistance. Strengthen the arms of those who remain for long term rebuilding. Fill with your Spirit the hearts of those who despair along the way. Bless all that we have towards answering your call. In the name of Jesus, AMEN.
