Lutheran World Relief
SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT. LASTING PROMISE.

MISSION

Affirming God's love for all people, we work with Lutherans and partners around the world to end poverty, injustice and human suffering.

Empowered by God's unconditional love in Jesus Christ, we envision a world in which each person, every community and all generations live in justice, dignity and peace.

VISION

“@LuthWorldRelief millions of Lutherans across the USA make quilts as part of their ministry. they touch the world as symbols of love, peace.”

Tomas Telapan is a banana farmer who lives in the Philippines. Through the LWR project in his community, Tomas has learned how to better protect his crops and is now part of a farmers' organization that helps him store, package and market the bananas for sale.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friend,

Thank you, thank you, thank you. As I think back over what LWR has accomplished this year because of you, I am in awe, and I am grateful from the bottom of my heart. Because of you, people who lost their homes in a typhoon now have shelter for their families. Because of you, farmers in West Africa are surviving, even thriving, in the midst of a devastating drought. Because of you, children are protected from malaria. Because of you, LWR reached 7.8 million people in 35 countries last year, with disaster relief, malaria prevention, agricultural assistance and much more.

You are Christ's hands in the world, answering the call to love your neighbor. Thank you for all that you do to help others flourish.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Manika Devi is a farmer who lives in India. She received goats as part of the LWR project in her community. After the goats have kids, she can sell them to earn additional income to support her family.
